Impact of Liberalised Import on Electronic Industry

2012. SHRI RAMDAS AGARWAL:
SHRI SHIV PRATAP MISHRA:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have made any assessment of the impact of liberalised import of electronic equipment and computers on the indigenous industry in the country, if so, the details thereof; and

(b) what measures Government propose to take to provide relief to the indigenous electronic industry?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY, DEPARTMENT OF ELECTRONICS AND DEPARTMENT OF OCEAN DEVELOPMENT AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (SHRI P. R. KUMARAMANGALAM): (a) The liberalised baggage rules, recently announced by the Government are not expected to have any adverse impact on the domestic electronics industry;

(b) The question of any specific relief to the indigenous industry due to the relaxation in the baggage rules does not arise. However, the following measures have been taken by the Government to give relief to the domestic electronics industry to face global competition.

(i) Consumer electronic items and computers (not exceeding CIF value of Rs. 1.5 lakhs) are among the 11 electronic items in the negative list of Export Import Policy 1992—97. The import of these items is not permitted without a licence.

(ii) In the budget 1993-94, Government have already provided relief to electronic equipments through reduction in customs duty on components and reduction in excise duty on equipments. These measures will go a long way in helping the domestic equipments industry in making the production viable.
